

The AIChE National Capital Section (NCS) is proud to host a two-part virtual event that recognizes

The AIChE National Capital Section (NCS) is proud to recognize exemplary students from the Capital s and through this in-person networking and career exploration opportunity! Join us on Thurs, October 27th for the 2022 NCS Outstanding Student Awards Ceremony that awards student achievement at the chemical engineering departments of both Howard University and the University of Maryland. Following the ceremony, learn about chemical engineering career opportunities by networking with highlighted professionals and leaders who have chosen traditional and non-traditional career paths!